

EAST QUALIFYING BULLETIN No.6 29th April 2010

TEAMS ARE ENTITLED TO A FIVE MINUTE WARM UP

This entitlement is irrespective of whether the games are running late or not.

Referees do not have authority to abbreviate the warm up time.

The only exception to the rule is if the person in charge of the venue makes the abbreviation because of a venue closing deadline.

If a team's rights are taken away, the team manager or delegated parent should seek the intervention of the venue authority. This Bulletin can be produced as evidence.
